Module 3

Legal Framework of Combating Gender Based Violence and the Instrumental Role of the Youth

 10 & 11
APRIL

 Beirut (Crown Plaza)

 09:00 AM
03:00 PM

The training was based on a rights Based approach. It equipped the participants with constitutional, international, and legal references and frameworks that support their rights. Participants were introduced to different human rights that are essential to be promoted, respected and fulfilled by public authorities.

The Constitution that supported this approach was highlighted, international Human Rights Conventions ratified by Lebanon were discussed, National reports submitted by Lebanon to committees related to Treaty Bodies instruments, as well as reports related to Universal periodic Review, and special Procedures. Shadow reports that are submitted to civil society organizations in Lebanon, reflecting the main gap and challenges for the rights of women in Lebanon, were also discussed.

Our Training Methodology

The participants received maximum opportunity for learning through a participatory learning process including structured presentations, case studies and group working

Several facilitation techniques were used such as group discussion, games, roleplay, sharing individual stories, case study, individual reflection, brainstorming, dialogue, role-play, debates..

The presentations were made through PowerPoint, flipcharts and handouts.

Practical implementation for some of the topics were reflected by trainees on flip charts and paper sheets.

The multiple training methodologies were utilized in order to make sure that all the participants grasp the whole concepts and practice what they learned

The main methodology used to ensure that the learning objectives of the seminars were achieved by using the group as a resource, focusing on their personal experience, variable ideas and frameworks.
